

What will membership in the do for me?

- You'll be part of an organization dedicated to the advancement the commercial, industrial, civic and general interest of the City of De Queen, County of Sevier and the surrounding trade territory.
- Your ribbon-cutting ceremony will receive extensive media attention. A picture of the ceremony will be featured in the De Queen Bee ($100.00 value), picture and write up on Southwest Arkansas Daily website at kdqn.net ($100.00 value) and KDQN radio will run 10 ads to welcome you as a chamber member ($75 value).
- We will soon launch a new website in conjunction with the City of De Queen and you will get a free listing on our membership page.
- Access to email addresses for our 150+ members to distribute information about your special promotions or events.
- Due to budgeting, we no longer staff the Chamber office full time. Membership dues and fundraisers such as our annual banquet & silent auction are our only sources of income.
- Our board has stepped up and is very active in the day-to-day operation and is constantly coming up with great ideas on ways to promote our local businesses and industries.
- In the last two years, we've added over forty new members!
- You and your employees will be eligible for a $10 discount on your yearly Air Evac membership
- Chamber Alliance Program offers affordable group health insurance for you and your employees
- You will have the opportunity to help the De Queen-Sevier County Chamber of Commerce make Sevier County, Arkansas the best place to reside; a place every resident displays a positive attitude and works together for the overall growth and progress of the county.
